The Spring Mini Edition!

By: Lindsey Moore

We've made it to spring and the 4th quarter! Between all of the test, quizzes, and projects, 2018 has already begun to speed by. Now is a great time to reflect on the past couple of months. Are you positively impacting your world? Are you using your time wisely? Declutter the unproductive habits in your life and use this time to bloom and grow! Enjoy your spring break! I think we've all earned some well deserved relaxation time!

Movies in Theaters: March Edition

By: Hannah Gorski

Avengers: Infinity War (PG-13)

In this action-packed new film coming out in April, all the Avengers get together to fight Thanos to keep him from getting his hands on the six Infinity Stones. The stones have the potential to produce mass destruction and only the help from the Marvel heroes can save the world. Even more exciting, Tom Holland, the new actor for Spiderman is making his first Avengers movie debut! This movie has been long-awaited and is sure to be a hit at the theaters.

Love, Simon (PG-13)

This new heartwarming film tells the story of Simon, a gay high-schooler who has yet to come out to his friends and family. Simon hasn't come out to his friends or family yet because he wants everything in his life to remain normal. But when someone else catches on, Simon's secret could be exposed. This new movie appeals to many audiences and is expecting success in the theaters.

A Wrinkle In Time (PG)

Ever since their scientist father discovered a new planet and traveled there, his children Meg and Charles Wallace have been left behind. With the guidance of Mrs. Who, Mrs. Which, and Mrs. Whatsit, the kids navigate through time and space to rescue their father. Although the public had high hopes for this film, so far it hasn't lived up to it's expectations.
